Proofs for this manuscript were not received by the corresponding author. There are a number of changes that should have been made at the proofs stage, which are summarised as follows:

1. p. 195: Incorrect e-mail address for the corresponding author. This should read as “nasimah.maricar@postgrad.manchester.ac.uk”
2. p. 197: Knee joint injection sites and approaches, col 2, para 2, line 11, “lateral” should be “medial”—thus “..femoral condyle and the medial border of patella..”
3. p. 200: Para 3, insertion of incorrect phrase that should be deleted, which reads “Accuracy of injection for ultrasound-guided injections was not improved except with injection of the anterior lateral joint line site”

4. p. 198: Footnote under Table 1, “Shaded row: within study analyses” should be omitted, since the table is now shaded throughout.

Yours sincerely,

Nasimah Maricar, Matthew Parkes, Michael Callaghan, David Felson, Terence O'Neill
