

Sport development in challenging times: leverage of sport events for legacy in disadvantaged communities

Barbara Bell^a, John Daniels

b.bell@mmu.ac.uk ORCID: 0000-0001-6436-2041

j.e.daniels@mmu.ac.uk

^aManchester Metropolitan University, MMU Cheshire, Department of Exercise and Sport Sciences

For inclusion in : Special Issue – Managing Sport and Leisure - Creating and Managing a Sustainable Sporting Future

Biographical Notes on authors

Barbara Bell

Barbara Bell is Senior Lecturer in Sport Development at MMU, in the Department of Sport and Exercise Science, with research interests in the impacts of London 2012 on school, club and community sport, the development of sport for women, specifically women's football, social marketing and the promotion of sport participation and programme evaluations in sport development. Barbara teaches at Undergraduate and Post Graduate levels and has published in a number of journals and edited collections across her research interests.

John Daniels

John Daniels is a Principal Lecturer, teaching across Undergraduate and Postgraduate courses in Sport Development and Physical Activity and supervising research degrees. His research interests include the evaluation of sport and physical activity intervention/ policy/ strategy, physical activity and health, community sport.